Senate and House Proposed to Aid The Hague Conference.

Brussels, Aug. 28.-The opening of the Inter parliamentary Congress at the National Palace here this morning was the occasion for a notable demonstration in behalf of President Roosevelt and the success of the peace conference at Portsmouth. The session was held in the Senate Chamber of the palace. Large delegations, representing practically all the leading parliaments were present. Minister Beernaert, in his adaress of welcome, aroused a storm of applause when he referred to President Roosevelt's two conspicuous movements in behalf of peace in first calling another meeting of the Hague Conference, and, second, in bringing together the plenipotentiaries of Rusia and Japan. Baron de Paveresu, the Belgian Minister for Foreign Affairs added tributes to the American President's efforts. The congress then adopted with enthusiasm resolutions of thanks to President nonsevelt and the secretary was instructed to send by cable the following:

President Roosevelt, Oyster Bay, N. Y.:

The Interparliamentary Congress at Brussels assembled sends greetings, and has the honor to advise you that it has passed resolutions expressing its high appreciation of your action in calling a second conference at The Hague in the interest of international peace, and its profound thanks for your noble efforts in the interests of humanity to terminate the Russo-Japanese war.

The congress afterward discussed the American proposition for a model arbitration treaty. Congressman Bartholdt spoke in favor of it Herr von Plener, president of the Austrian Upper House, opposed immediate action owing to the magnitude of the subject. Mr. Bartholdt also presented the report in behalf of the United States, which was in part as follows:

The status of our common cause in the United tates never justified a more favorable report than t does at the present time. Two causes have mainly contributed toward this revival of interest the peace movement—the meeting of the Intermainly contributed toward this revival of interest in the peace movement—the meeting of the Interparliamentary Conference on American soil, and the deep-going disgust with that barbarous war in the Orient. Over two hundred members of the American Congress have now joined the Interparliamentary group. Mass meetings have been held in nearly all large American cities during the year which declared in favor of the arbitration treaties then pending in the Senate. These treaties failed, it is true, not, however, because of any objection to the principle of arbitration, but because of their indefiniteness, which finally compelled the President to abandon the treaties. Under The Hague Convention he already enjoyed a larger measure of discretion than the new treaties in their amended form would have conferred upon him. The failure of these treaties may prove a blessing in disguise. It justifies the hope that the outcome will be the approval by The Hague Conference of a treaty, wider in scope and yet more definite in detail.

King Leopold received the delegates to the King Leopold received the delegates to the engress this afternoon. He conversed with each of the American members, expressing his admiration for the United States, and saying that he kept President Roosevelt's photograph, bearing his signature, on his desk in his study. At the afternoon session the congress further discussed the American propositions for a model arbitration treaty and a permanent congress of the nations. Speaking in support of the latter proposition, Congressman Bartholdt said, in European governments have choice between joining the United States in a union or witnessing the growth of a naval power in America calculated to make the lover of peace there and elsewhere tremble at the possible prositiution of this power to evil ends by ambitious men. Nothing can prevent the development of a great navy in America except the early creation and rapid growth in power and pressige of a parliament of nations, to bring about a fair foreign policy for all nations, the basis of which shall be home rule and an open door for all nations in the markets of the world.

Congressman Slayden, of Texas, spoke in favor of both propositions.

The congress resolved to refer the treaty proposition to a committee, with instructions to report within three months.

Count Apponyi announced that he would support the plan for a permanent congress of nations, and said he would move to-morrow that a special committee report thereon within three

"THE HAM TREE."

The New-York Theatre.

Last night was a mighty good one for Klaw & Erlanger and "The Ham Tree," with McIntyre and Heath, at the New-York Theatre, for August is still hot, and the theatre was filled with actor cople, who roared at the "busted" minstrel jokes and the efforts of the performers to extricate hemselves. Not that the general public will not be equally amused when it gets a chance to see "The Ham Tree," but last night was actor night.

"The Ham Tree" is called a "musical vaudeville," which must be different from a musical comedy, of the vintage of 1904. "Vaudeville" means "novelty." and they have that in "The Ham Tree." W. C. Fields, in his "New Way to Play Tennis," was one of the hits of the piece. Of course, there is no plot to "The Ham Tree" how could there be with that name?-but no one nisses it. The chorus has some new stunts, such as gathering on the footlights and calling the baldeads to them with open arms. The "heads" were perfectly willing to come, and even carry the suit ases which figure in one of the scenes.

Every one gets back to 5th-ave., as usual, in the third act, which opens with a hit song. "When the Cat's Away," and proceeds with an automobile Cat's Away, and proceeds with an automobile honeymoon, led by Forrest Huff.

It is a show that will do much toward setting the pace for the winter's productions, and if it was all up to the menu scene of the second act there is no doubt as to which would be the winner under the

"THE CATCH OF THE SEASON."

Miss Edna May at Daly's.

Miss Edna May, the first of Charles Frohman's stars to be presented this year, opened the season at Daly's Theatre last night, appearing in the Lonon musical play, "The Catch of the Season."

The London success of Seymour Hicks and Cosmo Hamilton's play can be readily imagined if the productions at the Vaudeville Theatre were at all comparable to that given here last night The story-the old one of Cinderella-is a dainty one, and needs dainty treatment.

Mr. Frohman has surrounded his star with a clever campany. If criticism be made it would be in the nature of a regret that the choruses were so numerous and the dancers so ready to appear from the wings at a moment's notice and prome nade about band boxes or music stools or anything else that happened to be in the way. Miss May was quite the fetching 20th century

Cinderella she was supposed to be. She flirted with the duke and sang her pathetic little song of "Buttercups," and the other ditties alloted her with telling effect.

Farren Santar, a son of Nellie Farren, by the way, made an agreeable impression as the duke of St. Jermyns. Miss Margaret Fraser, of the Galety and Miss Vivan Vowles danced effectively.

MR. EDESON AT THE SAVOY.

William C. De Mille's comedy drama of football, love and race prejudice, entitled "Strongheart," in which Robert Edeson last year made a successful starring season, was revived last night at the Savey, with Mr. Edeson again in the part of the much heralded pigskin artist and prospective Indian chief. An audience of flattering proportions cheered Mr. Edeson and his company in grateful fashion. The cast is nearly the same as last year, only there is a new leading woman in the person of Miss Mary Boland, and Miss Louise Drew, daughter of John Drew-and looking strikingly like him-has an important feminine part.

"THE PRODIGAL SON."

[By Telegraph to The Tribune.] Washington, Aug. 28.—"The Prodigal Son," which Hall Caine arranged for the stage before he wrote the book of the same name, had its initial perform ance at the New National Theatre to-night and was enthusiastically received. Its first production in London will occur at the Drury Lane next Sat-urday night, where Mr. Caine is now conducting the rehearsals, leaving the performance here to the management which will present the play at the New-Amsterdam, in New-York, next week.

The opening to-night gathered everybody worth considering who happened to be in the national capital so early in the season. "The Christian," by the same author, had received its baptism at the same theatre in 1898, and "The Eternal City" was inaugurated on the same stage three years ago, both the author and the managers being firm in th opinion that a week in Washington is a good thing for any play, even the best. The story and character of the play and the book are practically identical. There are three spectacular scenes in Iceland, and one on the Riviera, and the incidental music is Icelandic. The cast, which is much stronger than is usually seen in Washington, was warmly encouraged throughout the performance. The principal characters were Edward Morgan as Magnus, Aubrey Boucicault as Oscar, the Prodigal; Char-lotte Walker as Thora. Drina de Wolfe as Heiga. Marie Wainwright as Aunt Margaret, J. E. Dodson, George C. Boniface, Henry Bergmann and others, including a chorus to make up a company of more than a hundred.

"GIRL WITH THE BATON" APPEARS. Hartford, Aug. 28.-The "Girl with the Baton" made her first appearance in America to-day at Poll's Theatre with the Military Octet in a musical fantasy in three scenes. "The Russian Hussars in Siberia," "Tommy Atkins in India." and America's "Boys in Blue," are shown in military encampment characteristic of their different countries. Features of the production were a Russian overture, Rudyard Kipling's "Road to Man dalay," sung by soloist and chorus, and the bugie calls used in the American army, rendered by an octet. The "Girl with the Baton" will be seen at Hammerstein's Victoria Theatre, New-York, next week.

NOTES OF THE STAGE.

Crowded houses greeted the performance at Pastor's Theatre yesterday.

Miss Clara Palmer has been engaged by Daniel V. Arthur for the part of Inez Charmion in Mrs. Marie Cahill's piece, "Moonshine." Miss Palmer starred last year in "The Girl from Kay's."

were on the opening bill of the season at Percy G. Williams's Colonial Theatre yesterday afternoon, when that vaudeville house began the season. The other acts were by Dan McAvoy and his Fifth Avenue girls; Henry Lee and John C. Rice and Sally Cohen. Miss Bertram was heard in four songs, "Cupid and I." "The Bungalow." "If Tears Were Pearls" and "In My Oldsmobile."

Wistaria Grove's final week and the last appear ance in New-York this season of Miss Elsie Janis and "The Girl with the Red Domino" began last night. The chief novelty on the bill was Dr. Bruce Miller's musical instrument, the Pneumultiphone, which gives an imitation of a brass band.

"The Pearl and the Pumpkin" began its second week at the Broadway Theatre last evening with a packed house. This big spectacle has caught the public fancy.

East Orange Botanist Dies as Result of Hearty Breakfast.

East Orange, N. J., Aug. 28 (Special),-Profesfor Ellis A. Apgar, of No. 125 Beach-st., East Orange, was found dead to-day by Dr. Thomas W. Harvey. A week ago Professor Appar had a stroke of apoplexy, but was able to be about, and this morning ate a hearty breakfast, read for a time, and then said he would take a nap. He went to his room, where he was found dead

Professor Apgar was born seventy years ago in Peapack, N. J. He entered Rutgers College and was graduated in the class of '66. He taught in the State Normal School, at Trenton, and was appointed State Superintendent of Public Instruction, a position which he filled for twenty years, resigning to accept a position with the Westinghouse Electric Company.

He retired twelve years ago, and devoted his time to study and botanical research, and in writing for the newspapers on botanical and astronomical subjects. He had written a work on botany which was ready for publication.

He was apointed a member of the East Orange Tree Planting Commission when that body was formed, a year ago, and served as its chairman. He was constantly on the alert to discover pests which were injurious to the trees. He leaves a wife, two sons, William H. Apgar, of Arizona, and Ellis I. Apgar, of East Orange, and a daughter Wiss Missian Appar. ter, Miss Mineta Apgar.

HONOR FOR MISS LA FOLLETTE.

She Is Made Daughter of the Regiment at Boer War Show.

Miss Fola La Follette, daughter of Governor La Follette, of Wisconsin, was last evening made "The Daughter of the Regiment" at the Boer War show. Accompanied by Captain Arthur W. Lewis, Miss La Follette rode into the arena in the Cape cart. with three pair of horses. She wore the Scottish Highland costume, with Glengarry bonnet, close fitting black jacket, and its loose cape of Gordon

After the assembling of the troops and the firing of salutes in her honor, she was introduced by Pietrus Visser, who gave an outline of the cere mony and the reason for its bestowal upon Miss La Follette. Captain Lewis then assisted Miss La Follette to mount his black horse, Alexander, and she rode down the line, while the soldiers stood at "present arms." Many trophies of the Boer war were given to Miss La Follette.

MRS. GUGGENHEIM ANGEL OF MERCY.

Bandages the Wounds of a Workman Hurt at Her Home.

Handling bandages and lotions with the skill of a trained nurse, and stooping over the victim, regardless of a costly gown, Mrs. William Guggenheim, wife of the mining man, attended the hurts of a workman who was injured at No. 833 5th-ave. yesterday.

The house is being remodelled and renovated, and Mrs. Guggenheim was directing the workmen. When the accident happened, Mrs. Guggenheim told the workmen to bring the injured man into the basement of her house, and there, while an ambu-lance was awaited, she treated him herself.

Innee was awaited, she treated him herself.

The injured man, Richard Kennedy, of No. 208 East Hoth-st., had suffered a severe sprain of his left leg and ankle. Mrs. Guggenheim sent for bandages, and applied them herself.

When the ambulance surgeon arrived from the Presbyterian Hospital he said he could have done no better himself. He took Kennedy to the hospital, however, for further treatment.

FURRYS HONOR ROBERT BURNS.

[By Telegraph to The Tribune.] Allentown, Penn., Aug. 28 .- A reunion of seventythree members of the Furry family was held here to-day, representing, they declare, the nearest col-lateral relatives in this country of Robert Burns. Simon Lake Says He Will Leave the United States.

Simon Lake, inventor and builder of submarine boats, arrived here last night from Antwerp on the steamer Finland. Mr. Lake intimated that he was disgusted with the outlook for success in building submarines in America, and announced that he would sail for Berlin in two weeks, and make his permanent home in the German capital. "I have been away six months," he said, "and have been unusually successful in the foreign competitions. The French, German, Spanish, Russian and Italian governments all recognize and appre-

clate the value of submarines in naval warfare, and they are going in for them with great interest and determination. My experiments abroad have been so successful that I have secured a large number of foreign contracts. I shall open an office in Berlin. I like the city, and the business outlook is so bright there that I intend to make Berlin my permanent home.

Mr. Lake declined to state what governments he had negotiated with. When asked if he was to establish a submarine plant in Berlin, he smilingly remarked: "You may draw your own conclu-

Regarding the foreign tests of the Lake submarines, Mr. Lake said:

We surprised the officials and naval officers in one of the prominent harbors by sending a submarine clean up to the heart of the city without being observed. My captain took the boat well up under a bridge, circled closely around a batetieship, and got away unnoticed. On several occasions we went down to a depth of 137 feet, which is the lowest intentional dive of any submarine.

Our boats also made endurance tests, remaining under water for forty-eight hours.

Mr. Lake said he had read in a newspaper at Quarantine that President Roosevelt had made a dive in the Plunger, but made no comment on the Plunger's test.

"The recent naval battle in the Corean Straights." continued Mr. Lake, "started the entire European continent to thinking on the value of submarines. While there was noting done in the Corean waters to demonstrate the real value of submarines, the fact was brought out that the quickest way to dispose of or cripple the enemy was by the use of the torpedo. The world then saw at a glance that the only safe way to approach a battleship and attack with the Whitehead torperoes was by using the submarine."

Mr.Lake said he would still maintain an office in America, but that the main office would be in Berlin. The inventor, who has accompanied by his wife, was met at the pier by his father. The party left for Bridgeport last night.

SPOKE CHINESE WITH IRISH BROGUE.

Detective Deficient and Oriental Actors Were Discharged.

When Sang Chu and Woo Fook, of No. 10 Chatham Square, arrested at No. 5 Doyers-st., Sunday night, charged with giving a theatrical performance, were arraigned before Magistrate Finn, in the Tombs police court yesterday, the magistrate asked Detective Hamilton, of Captain Eggers's staff, who made the arrests.

"Can you talk Chinese?" "Yes," said Hamilton, as if such an accomplishment was quite ordinary. Magistrate Finn looked at the detective in admiration and continued:

"Ask him what kind of a performance was going on-comedy, tragedy or religious."

"What was yez after doing there?" roared Hamilton, in speech nearer Celtic than Chinese. For answer, Woo Fook put his hands together and assumed an attitude of prayer.

"It was religious, he says, your honor," interpreted Hamilton. "I could talk Chinese better than that myself," said the court. "Discharged."

Coroner Scholer has postponed until to-day the inquest into the murders of the four Chinamen who were shot and killed three weeks ago in a Chinese theatre.
